

OFFICIANT GIRL

LATE NIGHTS. GOOD MUSIC. & YOU.

A modern love, where it begins vivaciously and grows to depths beyond exception. It has no judgement, yet poetically challenges us in ways where we find ourselves challenging our ability to give to our partner in the same way that they fill our souls with love.

LET'S GET YOU MARRIED.

HELLO

WHY OFFICIANT GIRL?

I am Amina. I am a modern Minister of love and marriage. Your day is simply just as important to me as it is to your best friend. My passion lies in making sure not only do you go into your day feeling love, but you are able to actually feel that love throughout your day at every turn.

I will not only be your officiant, I will be the one you can count on to help guide you, make you feel at ease going into your day, and support you through this monumental decision you have made in your life.

I will help you put into words the love you have in your soul that you have always had a hard time describing. I will support your love with your partner and give you the guidance you need to have an experience that will touch each other in ways you can keep in your hearts forever. This process is not meant to feel stressful, it shouldn't feel stale and old, it should be fun, it should be a reflection of you two, and it should be filled with love!

your new friend, Amina
